Monthly Commentary

During the month, the Investment Manager closed on the first of two built-in USD 25 million upsizes of the existing gearing facility to USD 100 million from USD 75 million. The facility's upsize is expected to continue to enhance the Company's returns by modestly increasing the look-through gearing ratio and reducing cash drag associated with the currency hedging program. The Company continues to be substantially fully invested and has a cash balance of 1% of the NAV of the Company. As at 30 June 2019, the Company has 86% of its NAV in balance sheet investments. The Company's look-through gearing ratio is comprised of 0.23x on the Company's gearing facility and 0.19x on non-recourse gearing on a few of the Company's debt investments.

The Company's strong capital returns were driven by the share buyback programme and valuation increases in two of the Company's equity investments. One Mexican portfolio company closed on a new equity financing round led by a global bank and the Investment Manager agreed to a sale of an equity investment at a significant premium to cost which will close in the upcoming weeks.

The Company repurchased 15,009,212 ordinary shares at an average price of 68.35 pence per share under the share buyback programme. The Investment Manager continued to purchase shares of the Company in June with 20.0% of its monthly management fee. The Investment Manager purchased 74,706 shares following the announcement of the April NAV.

Events Subsequent to 30 June 2019

On 29 July 2019, FTSE Russell confirmed the reinstatement of VPC Specialty Lending Investments PLC to the FTSE All Share Index with effect from Thursday 1 August 2019, following the recognition of a liquidity data error at the June 2019 index review. This change will be reflected in five-day Tracker Files from close of business on 29 July 2019.

Despite the impact of the above, VPC Specialty Lending Investments PLC has posted strong performance since the erroneous removal which took place at the beginning of June, reflecting increased interest among fund managers and solid growth in NAV following the strategic pivot towards balance sheet investments in recent months.

From 1 July 2019 to 30 July 2019, the Company repurchased 825,583 ordinary shares at an average price of 74.66 pence per share under the share buyback programme. The Investment Manager continued to purchase shares of the Company in July with 20.0% of its monthly management fee. The Investment Manager purchased 70,184 shares following the announcement of the May NAV.
