Monthly Commentary

The Company's gross revenue return for the month was 1.31% (1.26p). The average interest rate on the portfolio was 15.74%. The Company's gross capital return for the month was -2.77% (-2.66p). The gross capital return was primarily driven by changes to the market prices in the Company's credit investments (-1.15%), equity investments (-0.83%) and fund investments (-0.61%). Additionally, the capital return was primarily driven by unrealised losses on equity investments and incremental expected credit loss reserves taken within the eCommerce aggregation portfolio. Revenue growth and contribution margins continue to be depressed within the eCommerce aggregation portfolio, a dynamic felt across the broader eCommerce and retail industries, driving the decision to adjust the fair market value of some investments.

On 22 June 2023, the Company declared its 21st consecutive dividend of 2.00 pence per share for the three months to 31 March 2023, and the dividend was paid on 27 July 2023.
